

HELP
AGAINST HATE

COMMUNITY CONVERSATIONS

HRC Celebrates #WomensHistoryMonth

From “Ain’t I A Woman” to “Flawless:” Women of Color on Inclusive Feminism

Weds. March 7 12-1pm 25 Van Ness Ave. Rm. 800

WITH

RAQUEL WILLIS

Named as one of Essence Magazine's 100 Woke Women and the Root's "100 Most Influential African Americans", Raquel Willis is a Black queer transgender activist, writer and Media Maven dedicated to inspiring and elevating the voices of transgender women of color. She serves as National Organizer for Transgender Law Center, and is featured in numerous media platforms including Essence Magazine, Autostraddle, Buzzfeed, HuffingtonPost, NY Times, and Vice.

&

MAHNANI CLAY

Social Justice Promoter. Proud Mother. Game Changer. Empath. Supermodel. Superhero. President and Founder of Project Cheer, Mahnani's work in social justice and healing justice represents "restorative justice in action". She raises the intersectional experiences of community through her leadership affiliations with movements such as, #BlackLivesMatter, Harvey Milk Democratic Club, and SF Black Leadership Forum.

For more information, contact the San Francisco Human Rights Commission:

25 Van Ness Ave., Room 800, San Francisco, CA 94607 • (415) 252-2500 • sf-hrc.org • hrc.info@sfgov.org