ALL HANDS ON DECK: Discovering Chinese and African American History at San Francisco Maritime National Historical Park

led by Zoë Polk

Weds. June 27 | Meet at HRC

Shuttle departs from 25 Van Ness at 12:00pm

Join the HRC for an inspiring tour of important contributions Chinese and African Americans have made to maritime history in San Francisco.

RSVP for a free shuttle to the Museum. Email Lori.Gannon@sfgov.org to reserve a free seat on the shuttle from the HRC office at 25 Van Ness Avenue to the San Francisco Maritime National Historic Park. If you'd like to meet there, we will gather at the Park entrance by the Hyde Street Pier at the corner of Hyde and Jefferson Streets around 12:30pm.

Zoë Polk is the Deputy Director of the San Francisco Human Rights Commission.

COMMUNITY CONVERSATIONS

are meant to inspire courageous dialogue on issues of equity and direct action, in a healing space made for community to express love and provide help against hate.
