

San Francisco Human Rights Commission
& The Women's Building Present:

LIVING IN AN UNFINISHED AMERICA

Shared Experiences of Discrimination and Resilience
by Arab, Muslim, and Sikh Americans

JOIN US!
AUGUST 12TH
5-8 PM

Join us for an exhibition of the San Francisco Human Rights Commission's photovoice project on Islamophobia and post-9/11 ethnic and racial discrimination. The project, entitled “Living in an Unfinished America: Shared Experiences of Discrimination and Resilience by Arab, Muslim, and Sikh Americans,” showcases the lived experiences of community members through photography and narrative. The exhibition features a short program at 6 pm. Admission is free. Refreshments will be provided.

THE WOMEN'S BUILDING
3543 18TH ST
(BETWEEN VALENCIA AND GUERRERO)
SAN FRANCISCO, CA
(415) 431-1180 EXT 10

COMMUNITY PARTNERS

- Council on American Islamic Relations
- Asian Law Caucus
- Arab Cultural & Community Center
- Islamic Networks Group
- Sikh Coalition
- San Francisco Department of Health
- San Francisco District Attorney's Office

► Principal Investigator: Dr. Edward Mamary, San José State University