

We all have a stake in our students' success

Please join us for our second Community in Conversation event

Wednesday, October 8, 2014

Ella Hill Hutch Community Center

1050 McAllister Street @ Webster Street

10:00am to 12:00pm

Breakfast will be served

How do we best serve our at-risk African American students?
A discussion of methods to support study skills and social-emotional strengths

Speakers to include:

Zoë Polk, Esq.

Director, Policy & Social Justice Division
S.F. Human Rights Commission

Sheryl Davis, MPA

Executive Director
MoMAGIC
Collective Impact

Questions and RSVP to devi@sfmagiczone.org

Community in Conversation * Engage, Discuss, Collaborate