THE HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION
& AFRICAN AMERICAN HISTORICAL & CULTURAL SOCIETY

MBSK EQUITY WORKSHOPS
AT THE AFRICAN AMERICAN ART & CULTURE COMPLEX

Human Rights Commission will launch the SF Alliance of My Brother/Sisters Keeper Equity Workshops 2018 at the African American Art & Culture Complex (762 Fulton St.) in February 2018 and display the work in a public art show!

FEBRUARY

7: 10am-1pm & 5:30-7pm
13: 10am-1pm
14: on-site @Drew Elementary School
22: 10am-1pm, Middle School Students/Programs
23: 10am-1pm
28: 6-8pm, Art Show/Workshop Presentations

FOR YOUTH:
- Express yourself through art, silk screening, poetry, and song
- Record and exhibit your work
- Snacks and/or lunch provided

FOR FACULTY & SERVICE PROVIDERS:
- Learn to facilitate activities that empower students and help realize equity in education
- Advance professional development

FOR MORE INFO, contact the Human Rights Commission at (415) 252-2500 or hrc.info@sfgov.org