The San Francisco Human Rights Commission is Seeking New Members for the Agency's Lesbian Gay Bisexual Transgender Advisory Committee

Application Deadline Friday, November 7, 2014 @ 5:00pm

(San Francisco, CA) The Lesbian Gay Bisexual Transgender Advisory Committee ("LGBTAC") of the San Francisco Human Rights Commission ("Commission") is seeking new members for the Agency's LGBTQI Community Advisory Committee. The LGBTAC identifies and addresses the issues and concerns of the lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, and HIV-affected communities in San Francisco and advises the full Commission on policy recommendations aimed at improving the quality for this community.

The LGBTAC is looking for members who are active in the community and who possess demonstrated experience and knowledge in subject matter areas dealing with racism, youth issues, aging, AIDS/HIV, anti-bullying and violence, civil rights, class, disability, women's rights, gender identity, bisexual visibility, faith-based advocacy, education, intersex and health issues are amongst the variety of advocacy platforms advanced by the committee. The LGBTAC strives to achieve diversity and representation in its composition. Applicants should be residents of San Francisco.

Michael Pappas, San Francisco Human Rights Commissioner and Chair of the "LGBTAC" stated, "The SFHRC is one of the oldest and preeminent human rights agencies in the country and the LGBT Advisory Committee has positioned itself as an integral component of the HRC's leadership and advocacy. This exceptional group holds membership to the best and the brightest minds from a wide spectrum of disciplines including tech, legal, non-profit, government, community development and health field who are passionate about improving the quality of life for the LGBT community in San Francisco and beyond!"

In 2014 the LGBTAC continued its wide-spread advocacy focusing on such critical issues as LGBT "Economic Wellness and Affordable Housing", Bridging the gap between the LGBT Community and the City's Tech Sector and advancing greater "Empowerment for Immigrant Trans* Women and Trans*Women of Color.

Applicants must be able to make a firm commitment to attend LGBTAC meetings on the third Tuesday of every month from 5:30 -7:30 PM and participate in a related working group that is responsible for facilitating a community event that highlights a current issue impacting the LGBT community in San Francisco.

Interested persons may download and complete the application located on the HRC's website at <http://sf-hrc.org/index.aspx?page=15> and/or send a letter (by mail, fax, email, or personal delivery) detailing why they would like to serve on the LGBTAC, their community involvement and areas of expertise, and any other qualities they could bring to the LGBTAC. Correspondence and applications via e-mail may be sent to david.miree@sfgov.org or via US Post at the address listed below. The completed application and corresponding letters must be received or postmarked no later than Friday, November 7, 2014 by 5:00 p.m. Applications posted via US Mail may be addressed to:
